AMAZING SUPER HEROES TO THE RESCUE

SPIETH HALL Kudos to the swing/graveyard shift supervisors and their staff for responding quickly to an incident that occurred at Spieth Hall on August 25 at 1:00 a.m. Yolanda Kauil, senior custodian, reported the incident, and this is the second incident the custodial team has responded to in the building recently. They took immediate action to gather staff and equipment to extract water in several labs and offices on the first and second floors.

Communication and awareness are key, especially when staff work during the swing/graveyard shift. The staff sent a report regarding the incident that led to the flood and what actions they took to assist with the security of the building.

Custodial supervisors who assisted included Rod Buenting, Moses Burke, Rudy Cachu, Sal Cardenas, and Rey Varela. Custodial staff who assisted were Ermelindo Aguilar, Charles Dalton, Marisol Del Toro, Emanuel Delgado, David Gent, Yolanda Kauil, Calvin Lewis, Arnold Mendoza, Marissa Palomino, Jose Pineda, and Robert Ybarra.

Chad Chambers, carpentry supervisor, volunteered to manage the project for Maintenance Services. He quickly mobilized trades staff and a contractor to assist with drying out the building.

STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER UCR Police & Campus Safety commended Irma Andrade, senior custodian, for making an exceptional example of "see something — say something." Irma promptly contacted them on August 29 after 9:30 p.m., while working inside the Student Success Center, to report equipment being stolen in action and helped deter further crime.

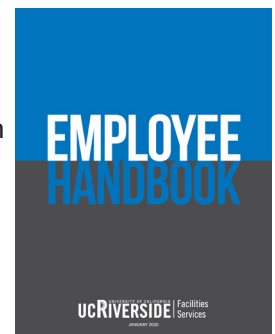

Yolanda Kauil, senior custodian assigned to Spieth Hall, reported the incident on August 25.

ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGES

FACILITIES SERVICES AND AUXILIARY SERVICES TRANSITION

Phase 1, Custodial & Resource Services —

On August 22, Custodial & Housekeeping Services and Resource Management officially transitioned into two, separate operational teams: campus Facilities Services, FS, and Auxiliary Services/Housing Services, AUX.

Staff who have been supporting housing custodial and resource services will continue to report to their existing supervisor, however they are now under the AUX leadership. Staff who are supporting the campus will continue to provide service under FS.

Some things haven't changed — human resources, purchasing, and workorder management support will remain the same for now.

Phase 2, Maintenance Services — This is the second group to transition from FS to AUX and transition plans are currently being developed.

In support of this transition, and in preparation for housing move in, Jason

Williams, lock shop supervisor, has temporarily moved to Pentland Hills. Jason will continue to supervise the lock shop, but his presence at Housing Services will help with projects needed to prepare for move in. Additionally, John Peraino, retired assistant director of maintenance services, has temporarily been hired by housing to assist with the transition.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

A new group within FS is being developed to focus on project management. This group will focus on facilities projects, customer requests, and deferred maintenance.

Why are we creating a new team? Projects have currently been run by Dan Lerman, project manager, with the support of Maintenance Services. Expanding a team that includes Dan will provide FS the ability to improve project delivery, complete requests in a more timely manner, and relieve some of the work from the maintenance team so they are able to focus on routine, preventative, and emergency tasks.
